

REPLY EXHIBIT 2

Subject: Letter From Baseball team
Date: Tuesday, May 24, 2022 at 2:18:56 PM Pacific Daylight Time
From: [REDACTED]
To: jmcdermott2@usfca.edu
Attachments: Screen Shot 2022-05-24 at 2.13.42 PM.png

Hello Mrs. Mcdermott,

I hope you are doing well. I thought I should inform you about the letter that you may or may not have received from "the baseball team" about keeping G's name in good standing as well as implying how all of the team would leave if Coach Keplinger were to leave and how he must be kept on as a part of the staff. This letter that was "signed" by a good chunk of the team should be completely null and void. Our signing of this "confidential" letter was not confidential at all. We were completely coerced into signing it and when half the team did not want to do it we were texted this message below as well as called by this individual infuriated asking us "why have you not signed this? Do you even care about the team? The leaders of the team will know how much you care if you just sign it." Now I can't speak for everyone about getting a phone call like this other than for myself, [REDACTED] who is on the team as well as one of my roommates. I just thought you should be privy to this information.

MASA

May 9, 2022 at 9:45 AM

[REDACTED] Yo only 19 dudes have gone in and signed the letter that was written for us to be blasted out to the public. We can't proceed anything if we only have 19 people that have signed it. If you haven't seen the letter, it is from [REDACTED] and it is in your email. You have to docusign it and it takes 30 seconds max. It's optional but there are no repercussions to signing it

Subject: Re: Letter From Baseball team
Date: Saturday, May 28, 2022 at 5:22:37 PM Pacific Daylight Time
From: [REDACTED]
To: Joan McDermott
Attachments: image0.png, image1.png, Screen Shot 2022-05-24 at 2.13.42 PM.png, ATT00004.txt

Sent from my iPhone

> On May 26, 2022, at 9:02 AM, [REDACTED] wrote:

>

> Unfortunately I don't have access to the letter any more it was sent through a DocuSign program by [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I feel comfortable on this team for the most part I just thought the administration would have seen this letter and wanted to set the record straight.

>

> Sent from my iPhone

>

>> On May 25, 2022, at 11:27 AM, Joan McDermott <jmcdermott2@usfca.edu> wrote:

>>

>> [REDACTED]

>>

>> [REDACTED] are valuable members of the baseball team. We will get this cleaned up so hang in there.

>>

>> If you are comfortable, please send me a copy of the letter.

>>

>> Joan

>>

>> Sent from my iPad

>>

>>> On May 25, 2022, at 8:27 AM, Joan McDermott <jmcdermott2@usfca.edu> wrote:

>>>

>>> [REDACTED]

>>>

>>> Thank you for letting me know about this situation. I am so sorry you are being put in this situation. I am including Frank and Pop in this email. They will both be around the team so if you need anything let them know.

>>>

>>> I saw that [REDACTED] Are you sure you want to transfer?

>>>

>>> JM

>>>

>>> Sent from my iPad

>>>

>>>> On May 24, 2022, at 2:19 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

>>>>

>>>>

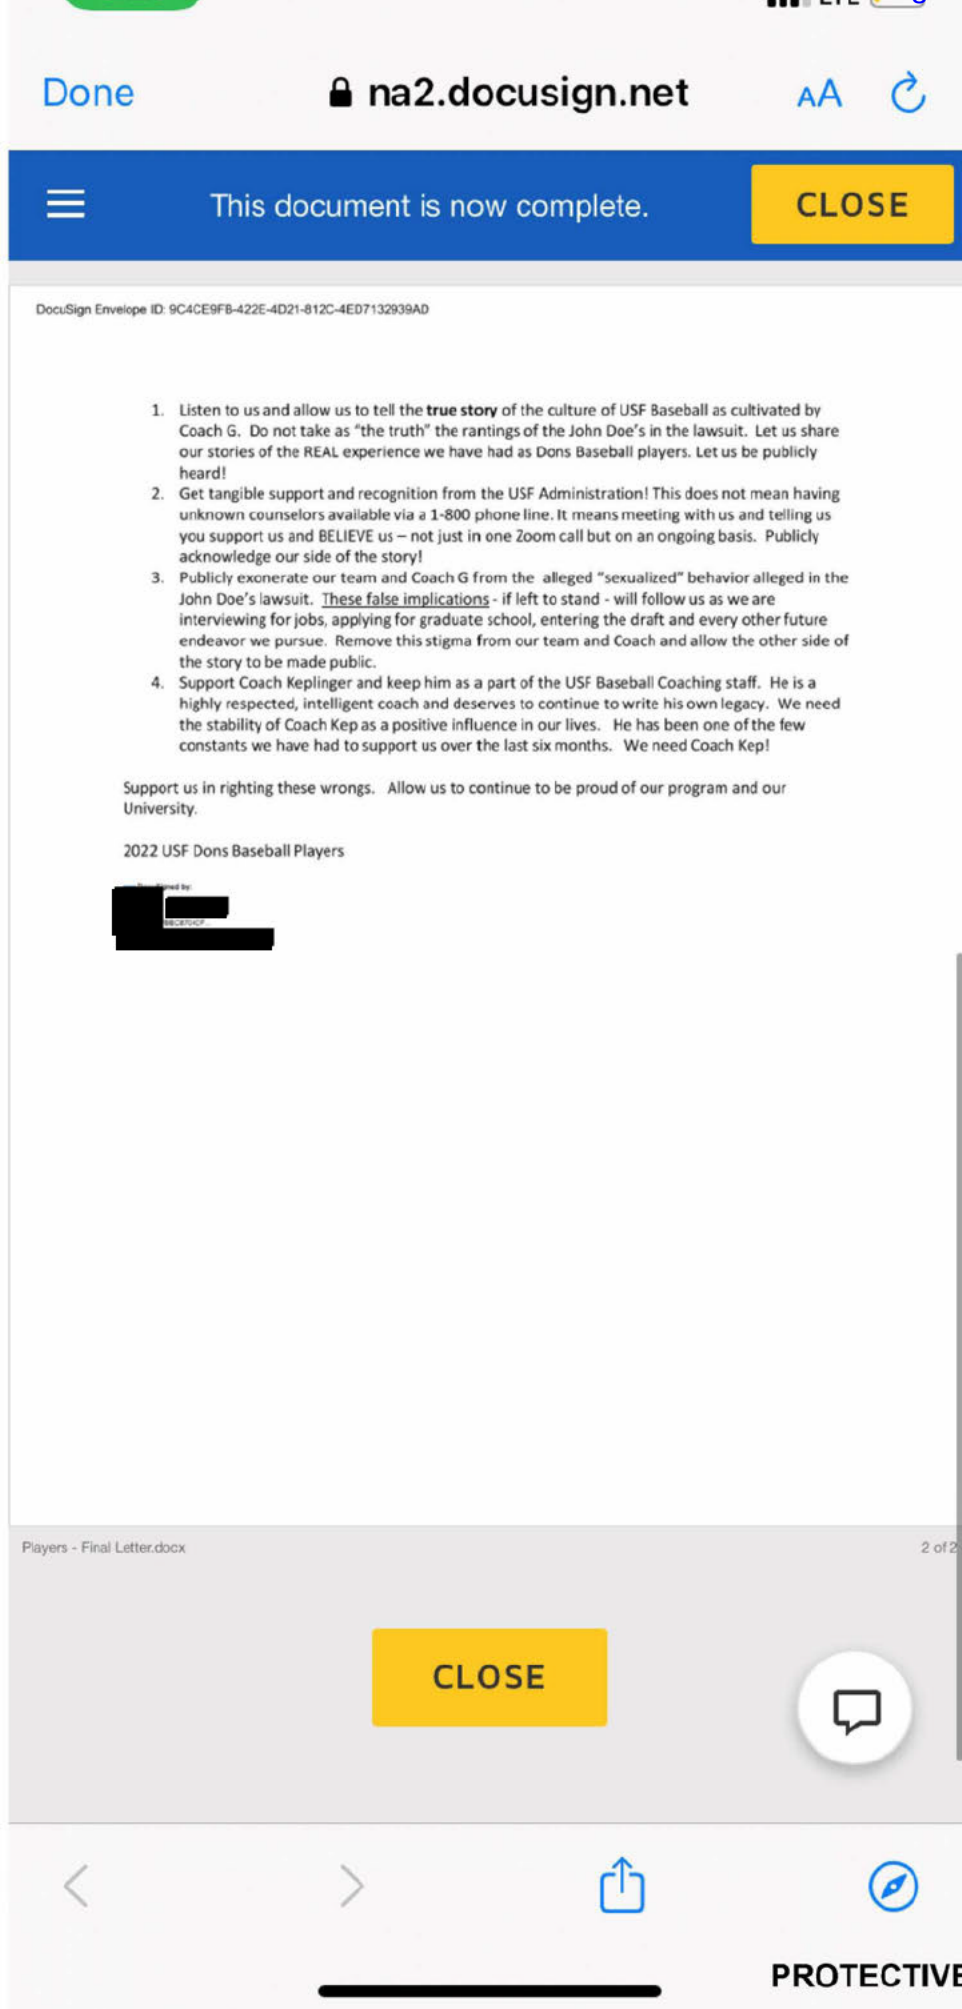

>>>> Hello Mrs. McDermott,

>>>>

>>>> I hope you are doing well. I thought I should inform you about the letter that you may or may not have received from "the baseball team" about keeping G's name in good standing as well as implying how all of the team would leave if Coach Keplinger were to leave and how he must be kept on as a part of the staff. This letter that was "signed" by a good chunk of the team should be completely null and void. Our signing of this "confidential" letter was not confidential at all. We were completely coerced into signing it and when half the team did not want to do it we were texted this message below as well as called by this individual infuriated asking us "why have you not signed this? Do you even care about the team? The leaders of the team will know how much you care if you just sign it." Now I can't speak for everyone about getting a phone call like this other than for myself, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. I just thought you should be privy to this information.

Subject: Re: Letter From Baseball team

Date: Wednesday, May 25, 2022 at 8:54:08 AM Pacific Daylight Time

From: [REDACTED]

To: Joan McDermott

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
On Wed, May 25, 2022 at 8:27 AM Joan McDermott <jmcdermott2@usfca.edu> wrote:

[REDACTED]
Thank you for letting me know about this situation. I am so sorry you are being put in this situation. I am including Frank and Pop in this email. They will both be around the team so if you need anything let them know.

I saw that [REDACTED] Are you sure you want to transfer?

JM

Sent from my iPad

> On May 24, 2022, at 2:19 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

>

>

> Hello Mrs. McDermott,

>

> I hope you are doing well. I thought I should inform you about the letter that you may or may not have received from "the baseball team" about keeping G's name in good standing as well as implying how all of the team would leave if Coach Keplinger were to leave and how he must be kept on as a part of the staff. This letter that was "signed" by a good chunk of the team should be completely null and void. Our signing of this "confidential" letter was not confidential at all. We were completely coerced into signing it and when half the team did not want to do it we were texted this message below as well as called by this individual infuriated asking us "why have you not signed this? Do you even care about the team? The leaders of the team will know how much you care if you just sign it." Now I can't speak for everyone about getting a phone call like this other than for myself, [REDACTED] as well as one of my roommates. I just thought you should be privy to this information.

>